California Congress of Parents and Teachers, Inc.,
416 Union Building,
Second and Broadway,
San Diego 1, California.

Mesdames:

Reference is made to the evidence submitted for use in determining the status of your local associations for Federal income tax purposes.

In Bureau ruling dated February 26, 1943, it was held that you are entitled to exemption from Federal income tax under the provisions of section 101(6) of the Internal Revenue Code and corresponding provisions of prior revenue acts as it is shown that you are organized and operated exclusively for educational purposes.

It is the opinion of this office, based upon the evidence presented, that you and the local associations appearing in your Year Book 1943-1944, California Congress of Parents and Teachers, Inc., are entitled to exemption from Federal income tax under the provisions of section 101(6) of the Internal Revenue Code and corresponding provisions of prior revenue acts, as it is shown that you and the local associations are organized and operated exclusively for educational purposes. Accordingly, it will not be necessary for you and such associations to file returns of income unless there is a change in your organization, purposes or methods of operation.

W T

You should furnish the Bureau annually, on the calendar year basis, lists in quadruplicate showing only the names and addresses of any new local associations and the names and addresses of any local associations which for any reason have ceased to exist. Such annual lists should be accompanied by a statement sworn to by one of your principal officers as to whether the information heretofore submitted by you on which this ruling is based is applicable in all respects to the associations appearing on the lists and should be forwarded so as to reach this office not later than February 15 of the following year.

California Congress of Parents and Teachers, Inc.

Since any organization which is exempt from Federal income tax under the provisions of section 101 of the Internal Revenue Code also is exempt from the capital stock tax pursuant to the express provisions of section 1201(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, you and the local associations appearing in your Year Book 1943-1944 will not be required to file capital stock tax returns for future years so long as the exemption from income tax is effective.

Furthermore, under substantially identical authority contained in sections 1426 and 1607 of the Code and/or corresponding provisions of the Social Security Act, the employment taxes imposed by such statutes are not applicable to remuneration for services performed in your employ or in the employ of such associations so long as the conditions prescribed above for retention of an exempt status for income tax purposes are met.

Contributions made to you and the local associations listed are deductible by the donors in arriving at their taxable net income in the manner and to the extent provided by section 23(o) and (q) of the Internal Revenue Code and corresponding provisions of prior revenue acts.

Bequests, legacies, devises or transfers, to or for your use or for the use of such local associations are deductible in arriving at the value of the net estate of a decedent for estate tax purposes in the manner and to the extent provided by sections 812(d) and 861(a)(3) of the Code and/or corresponding provisions of prior revenue acts. Gifts of property to you or them are deductible in computing net gifts for gift tax purposes in the manner and to the extent provided in section 1004(a)(2)(B) and 1004(b)(2) and (3) of the Code and/or corresponding provisions of prior revenue acts.

The collector of internal revenue at Los Angeles, California, is being advised of this action.

By direction of the Commissioner.

Respectfully,

Deputy Commissioner.
